

Järvenkylä is soft berries and aparaghus farm in the south part of Finland. Since 1980 farm was specialized in open field berry farming. In 2014 modern block green house was built and later on was started with polythunels. Our main berry is strawberry for fresh market.

www.jarvenkylamaatila.fi

Could you be one of us?

Gardener/farming technician

In this job, your duties are mainly the handling and monitoring of greenhouse and tunnel grown strawberries and raspberries. Farming is mainly mechanical and you will have the ability to operate tractors and other machinery, irrigation system. Monitoring equipment is used in greenhouse and tunnel farming. For example, you understand what is meant by EC or pH.

The following qualities will be helpful for your success in this work; you are precise and punctual and as this work is very independent, you are required to be trustworthy and available to help others also. Experience in different areas of farming will be very useful.

You will be working with people of different cultures and have a responsibility to report back to management on a daily basis. It is seen as beneficial if you have any experience with farming politics and policies.

The following educations are seen as applicable:

agronomist, horticulturist, agrologist. Ability to speak English is necessary. Russian are seen as useful in this work as you will be in some contact with pickers and other workers. This job is also suitable for a student studying this field, as it can be started as an apprenticeship, then working up to a permanent position.

Working period 1.3.2020 – 30.9.2020

We offer an outlook into modern day horticulture. You will be able to advance your understanding and learning with the help of a strong team. We have a helpful and supporting manner and you will not feel alone.

If you got interested please send your CV to email:

maatila@jarvenkyla.fi

Also we will be glad answer to your questions.

Phone +358-50-5524733

