Bachelor studies at Vytautas Magnus University

- The first-cycle (bachelor) studies consist of no less than 240 credits, including the BA final thesis;
- The duration of full-time studies is 4 years (for Catholic Theology study programme, 5 years); the duration of part-time studies is 6 years;
- One year of full-time studies consists of 60 credits, one year of part time studies consists of 30-45 credits
- Credits presented here and hereinafter are attuned to ECTS

Master studies at Vytautas Magnus University

- The second-cycle (master) studies consist of no less than 90 and no more than 120 credits, including MA final thesis;
- The duration of full-time studies is 1,5 or 2 years.

Study system

First-cycle (bachelor) study subjects consist of Artes Liberales general university subjects (at least 56 credits) and subjects of particular study fields of one's speciality (at least 120 credits)

Artes Liberales general university subjects consist of 2 groups:

- Group A: subjects of the main study and art fields and foreign languages;
- Group B: alternative introductory subjects of study fields taught in other study programmes.

Every student has to choose a specified number of subjects from each group of subjects during the first two years of studies.

- Group C: subjects of particular study field (specialty), which are studied during 4 years of studies. They can be mandatory and optional.

Group A: subjects of the main study fields and foreign languages

This group consists of 5 sub-groups:

- Physical, Biomedical and Technology Sciences
- Humanities
- Arts
- Social Sciences
- Foreign Languages

During the first 4 semesters students have to choose at least one study subject from the first four fields in the sub-groups (unless the requirements of the study programme provide otherwise) with a possibility not to choose subjects of the study fields of the study programme a student is enrolled. E.g. if a student studies Economy, s/he cannot choose the study subject Economy.

As far as the fifth sub-group of foreign languages is concerned, which consists of compulsory English language courses and other foreign languages taught at the University, a student has to choose at least 12 credits but no more than 24 credits.

Studying languages at VMU

Compulsory English language

- If you start from level A2 and higher, you have to reach level C1
- If you start from level A1, you have to reach level B2.
- If a student has already reached level C1, s/he can study any other language free of charge for 12 credits
- English language competence of each student is evaluated by diagnostic test at the Institute of Foreign Languages, which is taken during the week for contract signing or introductory week.

Optional

30 languages to students of all faculties and programmes:

- * Italian
- German
- French
- Norwegian
- Chinese
- Japanese
- Sign language
- Latin
- Other languages

Students can study languages as unclassified students

Group B: alternative introductory subjects of study field

Subjects taught in other study programmes different from those a student is enrolled in. Credits of this group (16 credits) can be freely chosen by a student from the study subjects which belong not only to group B but also to group A.

- Subjects of group B include the study subject Computer Literacy, which is compulsory to students if they:
 - ✓ do not have the European Computer Driving Licence (ECDL);
 - ✓ failed to positively pass state exam of Information Technologies;
 - ✓ did not take or failed to pass computer literacy test organized at the University during the introductory study week.

Group C: subjects of a student's chosen study programme (specialization), including term papers, internship and final thesis.

Individual plan of studies

- Students create their own individual study plans for each semester.
- The study process is regulated by the semester study timetable. Your faculty schedule can be provided in your faculty. The schedule indicates the forms of classroom activity, their time, duration and location as well as the language of instruction and the lecturer's name.
- While creating individual study plans, students must adhere to the following requirements:
 - The subjects (full time) studied per semester must be worth no less than 24 and no more than 36 credits – 30 credits in average (part time – 14-26);
 - The average worth of one year of full-time studies is 60 credits (part time 30-45).

Evaluation of study achievements

- The university uses an accumulative grade system of the evaluation of study achievements;
- The final grade integrates the grades of midterms and the exam;
- The weight of the separate constituents of midterms on the final grade can be found in a course description;
- The student who has failed an exam or has received a final grade lower than 5 has a right to re-take this exam once free of charge and the second time paying for the retake (20 Eur).
- Exam re-take is organized by the departments after the exam session on the date specified in the academic calendar; the departments announce the schedule of exam re-takes on VMU internal network and the bulletin boards of faculties and departments no later than 2 days before the assigned date of the exam re-take.

Termination of studies

- Students have a right to academic leave of one year (temporary suspension of studies). By the decree of the dean, academic leave is granted no sooner than after completing the first semestre.
- Within the semestre, academic leave is granted no later than 2 weeks before the start of the semestre's exam session. The end of academic leave always matches the start of the autumn or spring semestre.
- Students are deleted from lists of students for truancy, failing to pay for studies, failing to register for semestre's subjects, not returning from academic leave, not fulfilling other student duties or by their own request to terminate studies.
- Students are deleted from lists for truancy if their final grades of three or more different subjects are lower than 5.
