

Bachelor degree programme

Website

VYTAUTAS MAGNUS
UNIVERSITY
AGRICULTURE
ACADEMY

Sustainable Bio-Business Management

The study program is intended to prepare the specialists who have the knowledge and abilities necessary to manage and develop organizations, who are familiar with management processes, technologies for the production, processing and conversion of biological resource, who are able to perform management functions, understand the economic, political, legal and social context in global society, who are able to evaluate it and make management decisions in business and public organizations operating in the bioeconomy sector and government institutions responsible for the development of the bioeconomy sector.

Faculty of Bioeconomy Development

Group of Fields of Study Business and Public Administration (L)

Length of Programme 4 years

ECTS credits 240

Name of Qualification Bachelor of Business Management

Contacts

VMU Agriculture Academy International Coordinator dr. Ekaterina Makrickiene ekaterina.makrickiene@vdu.lt

Address

Studentų str. 11, Akademija LT-53361 Kaunas district, Lithuania

