

Customs Process Management

The aim of the programme is to prepare future-oriented strategic managers – professionals who aspiring to be influential business leaders with up-to-date knowledge of customs process management, analytical abilities and skills of strategic customs process management in the creation and development of business, capable of taking leadership in managing these processes in private business and public sector organizations, making decisions on business processes, customs procedures and customs tax administration management, taking into account the latest requirements of risks management, social responsibility, sustainability and environmental standards requirements.

Faculty of Bioeconomy Development

Group of Fields of Study Business and Public Administration (L)

Lenght of Programme 1 years

ECTS credits 60

Name of Qualification Master of Business Administration

Contacts

VMU Agriculture Academy International Coordinator dr. Ekaterina Makrickiene ekaterina.makrickiene@vdu.lt

Address

Studentų str. 11, Akademija LT-53361 Kaunas district, Lithuania

